

SCOTTISH SMALL-BORE RIFLE ASSOCIATION

7th April, 1978.

Second Scottish Air Weapons Meeting

The second annual meeting was held in the Stirling Recreation Centre, Princes Street, Stirling, on 1st & 2nd April, 1978. It was a resounding success, showing in particular the rapidly growing interest in air pistol shooting, and will be repeated on a much larger scale in 1979 now that an eminently suitable venue has been discovered.

The meeting was notable for the first holding of the Scottish Air Rifle Championship. Alan Campbell-Smith maintained his consistent league form to win comfortably the new challenge trophy presented by Messrs. D. Crockart & Son. Ian Gibb travelled from the south especially for the event and was rewarded with the top rifle aggregate for his efforts. Jim Scobie showed his versatility by holding off all challengers in the Pistol Aggregate.

Warmest thanks go to Bill Moonie, Irvin Kerr, Jim Scobie and Geoff Webb for building and/or dismantling the range and to Messrs. D. Crockart & Son for their financial support of the meeting (approx. £70).

Bob Normand
Secretary.
