Thanks are accorded to the Perth Club for the use of their excellent facilities and to our sponsors, D. Crockart & Son, Stirling, for continuing to provide the £20 first prize for each Grand Prix.

The remaining two events in this year's Championship are:-

30th August	Northern Open	Denwood
13th September	Gagie Open	Venue to be confirmed

Aspirants are reminded that the top four after the Northern Grand Prix will represent Scotland in the Mini-Games in September (subject to complying with the UIT regulations) and the top four at least in the final Order of Merit will be seeded direct into the 1982 Team Squad.

Final 1981 order of merit placing may also be important as the 1982 Mini-Games are being held in Guernsey in May, there will be the Army match in Germany early June and 1982 is a Commonwealth Games year (Brisbane, Australia). In that last connection, 3-position and Air Rifle events are included in the programme.

28th July, 1981.

Bob Normand.
