Congratulations to the winners of the prize events and to John Knowles who won the Grand Prix stage (and the Whisky). My commiseration to Gordon Winch on being counted out in both events. To those who weren't there to see this, the weather was perfect, just a little bit of damp to keep the dust down and a trace of breeze to keep the aidges and helicopters away!

The main support was from the Watsonians, closely followed by the two local gangs. Out of the 66 participants, only 22 had sent in completed forms and payment. Although I was delighted to get so many late entries, it isn't surprising that squadding wasn't easy and don't complain if results go to old addresses. Next time, I'll try for a £1.00 late entry fee!

The style of the Meeting, the way it is run, the Classification, bonuses, prizes and so on represents a consensus of views from a fairly narrow band of shooters. If you have some ideas to improve the event or attract more shooters, please come to the A.G.M. in Perth and put your ideas into action!

There were two complaints regarding smoking on the Firing Point. SMOKERS - Please note :-

NO SMOKING ON THE FIRING POINT!

Thanks are due to those who helped, such as Adam & Co. who set up the range and especially to Sandy who did all the scoring.

REMEMBER - next stop at GAGIE, see you there.

IDEAS IN ACTION

- 1 - The SSRA WHISKY TRAIL DRAW organised by Adam is now up and running. Believe it or not, there is a guaranteed MINIMUM of TWENTY bottles of Malt Scotch in prizes at only 25p a go. All the funds raised by this go entirely into the International Match fund.
- 2 - Commonwealth Games stickers have been printed and are now available from SSRA Council Members.
- 3 - The SSRA Commonwealth Games Sponsored Shoot held at the 'Scottish' has now raised over £500 so far but there are still a number of foras to be returned to enable us to announce the results at the A.G.M.
- 4 - The SSRA official 'HAIRY THISTLE' sweat shirt is now available from Tom MacGregor, our Commercial Manager, price £8.50. In addition, he also has badges, tea spoons and other items with the SSRA crest in full colour.
- 5 - Finally, don't forget that the SSRA Annual General Meeting is in PERTH on Sunday, the 27th. of October, 1985 at 2.00 pm. I'd like to see you there! Jack Lavety
