Congratulations to Shirley Smith for an excellent score with very consistent shooting. Despite Ian Shanks starting off with a lovely 200, Shirley just pipped him on the countback to take the 'Gold Medal' and Ian had to settle for the 'Silver'.

In the SSRA first stage of the Grand Prix, the conditions were very favourable and this was reflected in the very steady shooting by both Cliff Ogle and Gordon Winch - both having a score of 598 ex 600!. Again, this tie was resolved on count-back and Cliff received the SSRA special G.P. medal. In the excitement, he was not presented with his bottle of Scotch Whisky. It is the policy of the organiser not to deliver uncollected prizes!

Also, in the 6P stage, the E.U.Alumni would have had a superb set of the five top places if some old guy hadn't been showing off but it does show the remarkable collective ability of this Club. I would be interested in knowing how they do it. Conversely, the two big local clubs didn't field much of an entry so it is hardly surprising that they didn't do much.

The enormous discrepancy in the relative numbers in the different classes needs attention and I will be asking the Denwood Range Association and the S.S.R.A Council to permit a regrading to make the classes of equal sizes for future Meetings.

Various questions arise at each meeting and I have asked the SSRA Council to organise a Rule Book to lay out the Rules and Regulations of these meetings where the Conditions differ or are not defined in the N.S.R.A. Rulebook.

Now is the time to record your views. I would like to especially thank Bill Jaffray of the Bon-Accord Club who scored both the Meeting and the Grand Prix and my Clubmate, Brian Duncan who did the catering. The approval for both was evident.

Finally, I cannot let the opportunity pass to plead for fully completed forms with cheques to be sent off in good time. If the form is not received, then in addition to making it difficult to prepare score sheets and sort out the classes, your address is unlikely to be on the register and you will not receive a Prize List nor Entry Forms for future meetings. The dates are published well in advance and if you haven't got an Entry form 10 days ahead, then you should get in touch immediately.

PLEASE, speak up if you want changes or have ideas to improve the Meetings!
